Elevating Glass Design: Richelieu Glazing Divisions Unveil Architectural Innovations at Top Glass 2026

From structural glass systems to refined architectural details, Richelieu highlights solutions that merge performance, precision, and contemporary design

(Montreal, Canada, April 22, 2026) Richelieu Hardware is proud to announce that two of its specialized divisions, Richelieu Glazing Supplies (booth 20) and Euro Architectural Components (booth 21) will exhibit at the Top Glass Conference & Trade Show on April 30, 2026, at the International Centre in Mississauga, Ontario, Canada. Recognized as one of the glass and fenestration industry's premier annual events, Top Glass offers a dynamic platform for innovation, networking, and professional development across North America.

For more than a decade, Top Glass has brought together glazing contractors, glass fabricators, architects, and façade designers for an immersive experience focused on building with glass. Richelieu's participation underscores its ongoing commitment to supporting the North American market with advanced solutions, technical expertise, and design-driven innovation.

Richelieu's S1 Side Mount Elite Posts

At this year's event, Richelieu Glazing Supplies and Euro Architectural Components will showcase a curated range of high-performance glazing and architectural hardware solutions, including:

HD Series Spider Fittings

The HD Series Spider Fittings deliver strength and clarity for point-supported glass systems, creating expansive, transparent facades with minimal visual obstruction. Perfect for stairs, balconies, facades, and canopies, they offer a clean, streamlined look with maximum design flexibility for both interior and exterior spaces.

S1 Side Mount Elite Posts

S1 Side Mount Elite Posts offer a sleek, modern solution for stairs and railings, building strength with a clean, minimalist design. Available in Powder Coated Black and Satin Stainless Steel, the posts are designed for easy installation. They create a streamlined, contemporary look that complements any interior or exterior space.
